Training Record

Topic: Chemical and Biological Spill Response.

Summary: This training session covered contents of in-lab spill kits, procedures for handling spills of biological agents and small amounts of spilled chemicals, response required with large spills of chemicals, and handling mercury spills. Lab specific information was provided on location of Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS), location(s) of spill kits, and special requirements for handling specific chemical/biologic spills within the laboratory.

Training Provided By:_____

Name	SS Number	Signature	Date