

Luz Huntington-Moskos MS, RN, CPN

Position: PhD student – LECHN Fellow

Address: UAB School of Nursing

Email: luzhunti@ius.edu

Biography

Luz Huntington-Moskos, MS, RN, CPN is a Lecturer in Nursing in the Indiana University Southeast Division of Nursing. She completed her M.S. in Public Health Nursing/Adolescent Nursing from the University of Minnesota in 2005. She first developed her interest in working with adolescents as a high school science teacher in the US Peace Corps (Malawi '94-'96). Of Latino decent, with a background in international work and 3 years of experience providing nursing care to members of the Navajo Nation, Luz has a strong commitment to minority health issues.

Presentations and Publications

Presentations

Huntington-Moskos, L., White, P & Hollowell, J. (2009, April 7). Bringing Disaster Nursing to the Student. Poster session presented at the Building the Foundation for a Healthy Indiana 2009, IUPUI, Indianapolis, IN.

Clark, K., Bentfield, D., Webb, T., Huntington-Moskos, L. & Myers, J. (2008, September). A Step in the Right Direction. Poster Presentation. Mid American Public Health Leadership Institute Year End Meeting, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Bentfield, D., Clark, K., Huntington-Moskos, L., Myers, J. & Webb, T. (2008, April). An Unflushable Dilemma: Case Study. Mid-American Public Health Leadership Institute: University of Illinois at Chicago.

Bentfield, D., Clark, K., Huntington-Moskos, L., Myers, J. & Webb, T. (2008, April). An Unflushable Dilemma: Teacher's Guide. Mid-American Public Health Leadership Institute: University of Illinois at Chicago

Huntington-Moskos, L. (2008, November 7). Building an online nursing community. Session presented at the Clinical Education Redesign Conference 2008, IUPUI, Indianapolis, IN.

Huntington-Moskos, L. (2008, August 21). Living among the Navajo: A nurse in Dine'tah. Session presented at the IUS Nursing Convocation at Indiana University Southeast, New Albany, IN.

Huntington-Moskos, L. (2008, February 28). Peace Corps Week. Session presented at The Rotary Club of New Albany, New Albany, IN.

Huntington-Moskos, L. (2007, December 6). Understanding and Reaching Out to Latino Youth. Session presented at Indiana Youth Institute's Kids Count Conference 2007, Indianapolis, IN.

Huntington-Moskos, L. (2007, June 14). Latino Adolescents in the Central United States. Podium presentation at the Rural Nurse Conference 2007 in Richland, WA.

Huntington-Moskos, L. (2006, November 17). Photovoice: Adolescents in Cannelton. Session presented at the "Understanding Poverty –Local and Global" Action Lab at Indiana University Southeast, New Albany, IN.

Research/Clinical Interest

Primary research interests include the healthy development of Latino Adolescents as well as youth development efforts in rural communities.

Personal statement about LECHN

As new nursing faculty, the LECHN fellowship is a great opportunity for learning, guidance and support in research regarding child and adolescent health. The collaboration potential within and between disciplines is very exciting. I am eager to take advantage of all that the LECHN fellowship has to offer.