The Frohock Scholarship

Description
The Department of Art and Art History awards a Frohock Scholarship to a student who is a junior art studio major at the beginning of the fall term. The Scholarship is awarded from an endowment created by the family and friends of the late Edith Harker Frohock, Professor of Art at UAB. Applicants are encouraged to seek advice from a faculty member.

Application deadline: first Wednesday of February.

Requirements
1. Completed Department Scholarship Application Form.
2. A representative portfolio (minimum of 10 and up to 15 images). Portfolio details are found on the application form.

Rules governing the award and tenure of the scholarship
1. The faculty of the Department of Art and Art History will choose the Frohock Scholar from among applicants. If there is no applicant who is qualified in the judgment of the faculty, no scholarship will be awarded.
2. The Frohock Scholar must be a full-time student registered for at least twelve semester hours in the term for which the scholarship is paid. A student using the award in the summer term need only be registered for 9 semester hours.
3. The applicant must be a major in art studio or art history. Preference will be given to majors in art studio in the BFA program.
4. The applicant must be, by the beginning of the Fall semester, a junior who has completed at least 60 semester hours of undergraduate work but not more than 80. At least 12 of these hours must have been at UAB.
5. The applicant must have at minimum an academic record of a 2.75 GPA overall and a 3.0 average in all art courses.
6. The scholarship will be paid in two semesters or two semesters and a summer term.
7. If the Scholar withdraws in a term for which the Scholar receives a stipend, or fails to maintain a “C” average, any balance of the Scholarship will not be paid.
