Course Planning Worksheet for Creative Writing Students

Creative Writing students are required to write a thesis. Before students can be admitted to candidacy and then register for EH 699, they must have passed 18 hours of course work and had a thesis proposal accepted by their GSC and the departmental Graduate Committee.

Coursework Checklist:

1. EH 699, Thesis work (6 hrs required). Hrs ____________ taken _____

2. Courses in Creative Writing (12 hrs/4 courses required; at least one of these courses should focus on a genre that is NOT your chosen area, and at least one, preferably in your thesis genre, must be at the 600 level):
   __________________________________________ taken _____
   __________________________________________ taken _____
   __________________________________________ taken _____
   __________________________________________ taken _____

3. Literature courses (9 hrs/3 courses required):
   __________________________________________ taken _____
   __________________________________________ taken _____
   __________________________________________ taken _____

4. English electives (3 hours/1 course required):
   __________________________________________ taken _____

Total # of hrs taken: _______

Total # of 600-level hrs. (12 minimum, not counting EH 699): _______

GSC Chair: