Activity Name: Psychology Colloquium Series

Course Director: Sylvie Mrug, Ph.D.

Learning Objectives:

1. Participants will update and broaden their knowledge of psychology in the general areas of clinical psychology, developmental psychology and behavioral neurosciences;
2. Attendees will acquire an improved understanding of complex issues and relationships involved in psychological disorders and their treatment, development and the neural bases of behavior;
3. Attendees will be better able to perform their teaching and research duties.

Profession (check all that apply):

_____ Faculty    _____ Graduate Student    _____ Undergraduate    _____ PostDoc/Fellow/Intern

_____ Other (specify) _________________________________

Directions: Please evaluate this year-long series based on the series as a whole. If you are unable to rate an item, use “U”. SD=Strongly Disagree; D=Disagree; U=Unsure or N/A; A=Agree; SA=Strongly Agree

The activity met its published objectives. SD D U A SA

This activity has enhanced my professional effectiveness/patient care. SD D U A SA

The instructional quality was good. SD D U A SA

Financial disclosures for all speakers were provided before the meeting began either in writing, orally, as a slide SD D U A SA

There was no evidence of commercial bias present SD D U A SA

The content was objective and balanced. SD D U A SA

The content was evidence-based. SD D U A SA

The type of evidence was identified. SD D U A SA

The source of evidence was identified. SD D U A SA

Will the information presented during this activity lead you to make change(s) in your current clinical practice? ___Yes ___No ___Not applicable

Will the information presented during this activity lead you to make change(s) in your current research activities? ___Yes ___No ___Not applicable

Will the information presented during this activity lead you to make change(s) in your current teaching activities? ___Yes ___No ___Not applicable

What additional topics or issues would you like discussed in future activities?

Please add additional comments

Updated 4-27-2011