Requirements for Application to the UAB Graduate School
These requirements must be completed before you can apply to the UAB Graduate School. The requirements listed below are designed to ensure that you are meeting the Graduate School’s admission requirements.

☐ Complete a degree-seeking application for admission to the Graduate School via Apply Yourself. In the section entitled INTENDED DEGREE, select the following from a drop-down menu: Education-High School Education (MAE). As a concentration, select History. You must submit this application and pay the application fee (Domestic @ $45.00; International @ $60.00) before the deadline for your anticipated term of enrollment: November 1st for admission to the spring term; April 1st for admission to summer, and July 1st for admission to fall.

☐ Contact three individuals for providing a recommendation, inform them that they will be receiving a recommendation form by email from the UAB Graduate School, and ask them if they could kindly complete this form online and return it to a timely manner. Include their names and emails on your degree-seeking application. When you submit your degree-seeking application, an electronic recommendation form will automatically be sent to your referees. If your referees prefer to mail a recommendation letter, they should mail it to the following address: UAB School of Education, Office of Student Services, 1720 2nd Avenue South-EB 232, Birmingham, AL 35294-1250.

☐ Request that one (1) official transcript be sent by each issuing institution to the UAB Graduate School: UAB Graduate School, 1720 2nd Avenue South, LHL G03, Birmingham, AL 35294-0013. You MUST request an official transcript from each college/university that you attended, even if you took only one course at that institution, even if you attended that institution concurrently with high school, and even if your grade from that institution is on the transcript from the institution where you graduated. The transcripts received by the Graduate School will be used for admission purposes. NOTE: if you attended UAB, you do not need to request a transcript from UAB.

☐ Request that one (1) official transcript be sent by each issuing institution (including UAB) to the UAB School of Education: UAB School of Education, Office of Student Services, 1720 2nd Avenue South-EB 232, Birmingham, AL 35294-1250. You MUST request an official transcript from each college/university that you attended, even if you took only one course at that institution, even if you attended that institution concurrently with high school, and even if your grade from that institution is on the transcript from the institution where you graduated. When you apply for teacher certification from the Alabama State Department of Education, the UAB School of Education will send these transcripts to the ALSDE.

☐ UAB requires several immunizations of first-time graduate students. To learn more about this requirement, please click here.

Requirements for Unconditional Admission to UAB’s Traditional Master’s Program
These requirements must be completed before you apply to UAB’s Graduate School. The requirements listed below are designed to ensure that you are meeting certification requirements stipulated by the Alabama State Department of Education (ALSDE).

☐ Criminal Background Clearance. Information about the ALSDE’s required background clearance can be found by clicking here. You can access the status of your background clearance on the ALSDE’s certification portal by clicking here. If your background clearance is not posted at the bottom of this ALSDE portal, you should have your fingerprints taken. Do this by going to www.cogentid.com/AL and indicate that you need this background clearance for the purpose of teacher certification. After the ALSDE has received your background clearance, they will mail you a suitability letter. You do not need to send your suitability letter to UAB because the School of Education will verify your background clearance on the ALSDE’s certification portal.

Requirements to be met during your First Term of Enrollment at UAB
After you have met all application and admission requirements, you must meet some additional requirements during your first term of enrollment at UAB. Please note that failure to meet these first-term enrollment requirements may mean that you cannot continue in your certification program. The first-term enrollment requirements in your degree program are as follows:

- Task Stream. At the beginning of your first term of enrollment, you must purchase a Task Stream account by clicking here. You are required to have an active Task Stream account throughout your enrollment in this program. Approximate Cost: $25 per semester or $42 per year. This account will be used by you for creating and developing your electronic teacher education portfolio and also by School of Education faculty for scoring your key assessments.

- Non-native speakers of English: If English is not your native language, you must take the Graduate School’s Oral and Written Language Assessments. You must then take the Graduate School’s Academic English courses until reaching Level 3 Oral and Level 4 Writing.

Important Notes

- Please be aware that teacher certification requirements are subject to change. For example, the program certification checklist linked to this document may change depending upon the date you are admitted to your master’s degree program. Although UAB’s School of Education faculty and staff make every effort to keep this information current, it is possible that certain requirements may change. Therefore, please make every effort to contact UAB faculty and staff at the top of this document to make sure you are receiving the most current information.

- Please remember that it is your responsibility to seek advisement each term. By doing so, you will be assured of taking courses in a logical sequence so that you may graduate in a timely manner. Additionally, frequent advisement will keep you abreast of any changes in state certification requirements. NOTE: Although advisors and program directors give advice, it is ultimately the responsibility of each candidate to ensure adequate progress towards his/her degree and the corresponding certification.

- To comply with UAB regulations, candidates must access their UAB email account on a regular basis and they must always use their UAB email address for all official communication. If you encounter difficulties with your email address, please immediately contact ASK-IT (996-5555) or click here.
