SPONSORS:

A background image of a mass spectrometry plot with a blue color scheme. The x-axis is labeled 'm/z' and has numerical markers at 0, 400, 600, 800, 1000, 1200, and 1400. The plot shows several peaks, with the most prominent one at approximately 400 m/z. The text 'THE FLYING IONS' is overlaid on the plot in large, bold, black letters.

A UAB Mass Spec Interest Group

“So You Can Measure an Ion...
How Can That Help Me?”

Wednesday, February 18th 2009

5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

(Pizza will be served)

Join us for an introductory meeting for UAB's first open-forum discussion group dedicated to expanding the role of mass spectrometry within the UAB community. No mass spec knowledge needed –we encourage all to come!

Finley Compass Bank Conference Center
