COURSE CODE: TGPX839Preparing daily assignments:

Daily practice is essential for mastery of oral comprehension and communication. Half an hour twice a day is more productive than two hours at one sitting. The key is frequent exposure for limited periods of time.

1. Prepare text:

BEFORE each class session, you need to prepare and study the assigned pages for that class.

- This means you: a) read the introductory reading selection,
 b) prepare to answer oral questions on its content.
 c) memorize the vocabulary of the lesson.
 d) study the new grammar presented in the lesson
 e) complete activities assigned by the instructor

2. Student Activities Manual (SAM)

AFTER class, you need to complete the assigned Student Activities Manual (SAM) activities. Your instructor will expect you to raise questions about the material in the workbook, so that clarifications and additional explanations can be given in class. IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT YOU COMPLETE THE ASSIGNMENTS CLASS-BY-CLASS THROUGHOUT THE CHAPTER IN ORDER TO REINFORCE THE MATERIAL COVERED DURING EACH CLASS. Late work will not be accepted. Each chapter's assignments will be graded based on the completeness and the quality of the work.

3. ACE Practice Tests:

You will need to access the Internet to complete your ACE Practice Tests. Complete each assignment and send it via email to your teacher. The sites that you will need to access are the following:

ACE Practice Tests:

<http://college.cengage.com/languages/french/valette/contacts/8e/ace/practiceace13.html>

You may use the Foreign Language Media Services computer lab in HB 412 to complete all of your assignments or to check out movies from our Foreign Films Collection. You can reach FLMS at 934-6035 and <http://www.uab.edu/foreignlang/flmsite/index.html>

4. Cultural Events:

Students are required to participate in at least two cultural activities to receive full participation in cultural events credit (see grading policies) during the semester. The purpose of this requirement is to expose you to languages and cultural events beyond the classroom for cultural and linguistic breadth, to give you the ability to choose events that correspond to personal preferences, and to stimulate and motivate French acquisition beyond the classroom. Students must formalize their attendance on a sign-up sheet at every event.

- Always using French in class
- Regular use of new vocabulary
- Recycling vocabulary from previous chapters
- Grammatically and phonetically correct answers

- Progress in the “skill of communication”
- Alertness and positive attitude

Attendance policy: Regular attendance is necessary to learn a foreign language. Repeated absences, tardiness, passivity, and silence will definitely be reflected in your course grade. For semester-length classes*, the Attendance Policy of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures is:

Class participation, contribution and actual speaking in the target language is crucial in order to learn a language, therefore class attendance is mandatory. Any absence is going to affect students’ class participation and final grade. If under special circumstances, students need to miss classes, the following attendance policy will be applied:

3-days a week classes: 2 % from the FINAL grade is deducted for EACH absence above 4.
More than 9 absences will result in an AUTOMATIC “F”.

2-days a week classes: 2 % from the FINAL grade is deducted for EACH absence above 4.
More than 7 absences will result in an AUTOMATIC “F”.

1-day a week classes (seminars): 2 % from the FINAL grade is deducted for EACH absence above 1. More than 3 absences will result in an AUTOMATIC “F”.

Example for 3-day classes:

Final grade = 93
6 absences (2 above maximum permitted) = $93 - 4 = 89\%$ final grade
10 absences = F

Example for 2-day classes:

Final grade = 90
6 absences (3 above maximum permitted) = $90 - 6 = 84\%$ final grade
8 absences = F

Example for 1-day classes:

Final grade = 95
2 absences (1 above maximum permitted) = $95 - 2 = 93\%$ final grade
4 absences = F

*The Attendance Policy will be adjusted for summer classes.

Other class policies:

- Exams must be taken on dates and at times indicated on your syllabus. Students who miss a test can only be considered eligible for a make-up if they present an official excuse or note from the doctor.
- Classes begin promptly at hours scheduled. More than 10 minutes late to class will be considered one absence, as well as leaving early. On exam days, the oral part of the test will not be repeated for latecomers.
- No credit will be given for homework turned in late.

- There is to be no eating in the classroom.
- Phones and pagers should be turned off and put away while in class.
- For better oral production, students will need to refrain from chewing gum in class.
