

Proposed or Existing Course Title:
Proposed or Existing Course Number:		Number of Credit Hours:
If less than 3 CH, provide justification
The capstone course/experience should	Yes	No	Justification (required for "No" answers) or Comments
Be or be connected to an academic course.
Be a culminating learning experience that reinforces, integrates, and applies previous knowledge.
Be based on and reflect the specific approaches, methods, and practices of the discipline.
Include a set of well-defined learning outcomes and corresponding assessments.
Reinforce and assess student competencies in discipline-specific writing.
Reinforce and assess student competencies in discipline-specific quantitative literacy.
Reinforce and assess one or more ethical issues related to the discipline.
Facilitate the successful transition from college to a post-graduation life of responsible civic engagement.
Be completed during the last 30 hours of coursework.
Be required for graduation in the degree program or degree track.
Be facilitated and evaluated by full-time experienced faculty.
Have section sizes no larger than 30 students or have a faculty-student ratio of no more than 1/30.

