DISCLAIMER – St. Francis of Assisi was a devout Italian Catholic Friar whose influence is seen most recently with the current Pope taking his name. The general theme for our time of sharing is working to make peace an ongoing possibility in our global family. In light of the devastation in Boston this week, this becomes more urgent.

WORDS ON THE THEME by St. Francis of Assisi:

“Start by doing what's necessary; then do what's possible; and suddenly you are doing the impossible.”

“If you have (people) who will exclude any of God’s creatures from the shelter of compassion and pity, you will have (people) who will deal likewise with their fellow (human beings).”

“I have been all things unholy. If God can work through me, he can work through anyone.”

“While you are proclaiming peace with your lips, be careful to have it even more fully in your heart.”

“It is no use walking anywhere to preach unless our walking is our preaching.”

“No one is to be called an enemy(;) all are your benefactors, and no one does you harm. You have no enemy except yourselves.”
