Dr. Monica Gandhi

“Novel approaches to measuring adherence in HIV treatment and prevention”

Friday, April 14th, 2017

Noon @ BBRB 263

*Lunch Provided * Space Limited*

Monica Gandhi is a Professor of Medicine and Associate Chief in the Division of HIV, Infectious Diseases, and Global Medicine at UCSF. Research efforts have focused on HIV/AIDS in U.S. women and investigating objective methods to measure antiretroviral adherence and exposure in HIV treatment and prevention settings. Recent work has expanded to measuring adherence to anti-TB drugs in the context of latent and active TB infection. Dr. Gandhi also has an interest in HIV education and mentorship and is co-director of the UCSF CFAR Mentoring Program at UCSF.
