

UAB HEERSINK
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The University of Alabama at Birmingham

UAB MINORITY HEALTH & HEALTH EQUITY RESEARCH CENTER

RAMP-UP:

RESEARCH IN AGING THROUGH MENTORSHIP &
PRACTICE - UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM

Monday, June 3 - Friday, July 26, 2024

ABOUT THE RESEARCH TRAINING PROGRAM

- Training program open to rising sophomore undergraduate students at Alabama A&M University, Alabama State University, Oakwood University, Stillman College, Tuskegee University, and the University of Alabama at Birmingham
- Three-year program with intensive eight week in-person mentored summer research experience for year one and year two. Potential for a third summer of continued mentored research or internship
- Plus additional required learning \ opportunities and support throughout the academic year
- Opportunity to work with physicians and scientists on aging and health equity/disparities research
- Virtual seminars in Career Development, Scientific Writing, Research Education, and MCAT Prep
- Virtual Journal Club in the MSTEM areas (Medicine, Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics)
- Presentation of research poster at the UAB Summer Expo at the end of July
- Collaboration with students and faculty from partnering institutions & HBCUs throughout Alabama
- Students will receive a $3840 stipend per year throughout year one & year two, potentially year three
- Free housing at UAB for the two eight-week intensive in-person summer sessions
- Applications for 2024 will go live November 1, 2023
- Letters of recommendation required

For more information visit: Undergraduate – School of Medicine -Minority Health & Health Equity Research Center | UAB

↓ Apply Here ↓

A National Institute on Aging (NIA) funded program of the UAB Minority Health and Health Equity Research Center (UAB MHERC)