Stump the Professors Panel Discussion

Charles A. Leath, III, MD, MSPH
Associate Professor, Gynecologic Oncology
Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology
University of Alabama at Birmingham cleath@uabmc.edu
Stump the Professors

Educational Objectives - Panel

- Participant will be able to utilize critical thinking skills
- Participant will be able to decipher clues in unusual medical cases presented
- Participants will be able to formulate differential diagnoses for atypical clinical presentations

Educational Objectives – Audience

- Participant will be able to determine when specialists and sub-specialists are needed to help provide care in challenging clinical scenarios
- Participant will have a nice lunch while enjoying an entertaining medical presentation

Outline

1. Background of Participants
   - Word of Thanks to Dr. Straughn
   - Faculty Panel
     i. Dr. Edwards
     ii. Dr. McLean
     iii. Dr. Straughn
2. Warm up cases and popular culture
3. Case 1
   - Case Presentation
   - Differential diagnosis / diagnostic procedures
   - Final diagnosis
4. Case 2
   - Case Presentation
   - Differential diagnosis / diagnostic procedures
   - Final diagnosis
5. Case 3
   - Case Presentation
   - Differential diagnosis / diagnostic procedures
   - Final diagnosis

Select References
- Classified