

A FEW REASONS WHY WE LOVE B'HAM

1. Regardless of your household size, interests, taste in houses, or neighborhood priorities, you're sure to find the community with just the right fit.
2. Tasteful boutiques for trendy clothes, home decor, coffee, art, etc.
3. Festivals for all from down-home to upscale to ethnic cuisine.
4. Close proximity to dozens of fantastic destinations all within a day's drive as well as an easy to navigate hometown airport.
5. Home to an excellent art scene as well as some icons of stage and screen (past and present).
6. Barber Motorsports Park is an icon of international appeal with an on-site Vintage Motorsports Museum that is impressive to all.
7. THE FOOD...from meat- and-three home-style platters, barbeque anyway you like it, farm to table specialty restaurants, to a melting pot of ethnic cuisine...B'ham has it all.
8. THE GOOD BREW...numerous hometown breweries with comfortable atmospheres for music, food, and great craft beer.
9. The Magic City is at the heart of Civil Rights history and home to the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute.
10. Nationally and internationally recognized medical leaders at UAB such as Donna Arnett (past president of the American Heart Association), John Kirklin (improved the heart-lung machine for routine use), Basil Hirschowitz (inventor of the endoscope), and Tinsley Harrison (author of the gold standard internal medicine textbook), among many others still active at UAB.
11. Preservation of the good stuff like landmarks such as the historic Alabama Theatre, Vulcan Park, and the Cahaba River.
12. Great philanthropic traditions
13. Incredible views from Vulcan, Railroad Park, Ruffner Mountain, and The Summit.
14. Great venues for fine arts and music.
15. We know and love our college football. Just pick a team... (War Eagle, Roll Tide, Go Blazers (2016), Go Bulldogs, etc). Also home to the SEC!
16. There's always something to do...<http://styleblueprint.com/birmingham/happenings/>
17. Year round farmer's markets (Pepper Place) and in house seasonal UAB farmer's markets for fresh, organic produce and fares.
18. Region's Field, award winning home of the Birmingham Barons, is a place to see a great baseball game and get some great food!
19. We've got chefs who have actually battled Bobby Flay and WON!
20. A mecca for outdoor adventure from paddle boating at Oak Mountain, zip lining through Red Mountain's woods, or floating the Cahaba River all within the city limits.
21. Cost of living is low and ranks as the 12th most affordable metro area and 5th most affordable for renters (according to Forbes and Kiplinger)
22. Home of Southern Progress Corporation which publishes Southern Living, Cooking Light, and books through Oxmoor House.
23. Championship golf in your backyard at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail.
