

Department of Pathology
Division of Laboratory Medicine
University of Alabama at Birmingham

Director

The Department of Pathology at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) is pleased to announce the recruitment for Director of the Division of Laboratory Medicine. Laboratory Medicine is one of six Divisions in the UAB Department of Pathology. We are inviting applications from qualified candidates at the rank of Associate Professor/Full Professor for a full-time, tenure earning/tenured position through the Department of Pathology, School of Medicine. The candidate should have an M.D. (or M.D., Ph.D.), Board Certification in Clinical Pathology, and be eligible for a license to practice medicine in Alabama. The successful candidate should have a national reputation in academic pathology and a track record of a competitive basic, translational, and/or clinically focused research program. Prior administrative experience will be favorably considered.

The Laboratory Medicine Division includes twelve faculty members with a diverse skill set and operational expertise. The Director is responsible for oversight of both clinical and research activities in the Division and reports directly to the Chair of the Department. Divisional faculty are noted for multidisciplinary academic productivity, grant support, and national leadership. The Division supervises over five million laboratory tests per year and has ACGME-accredited fellowships in Blood Banking/Transfusion Medicine, and, in collaboration with the Anatomic Pathology Division, Hematopathology and Molecular Pathology. Research in the Division is diverse but particularly strong in translational investigations, immunology and microbiology. The new Division Director will have an opportunity to recruit additional faculty in support of our research and clinical missions.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and application packet including curriculum vitae, research interest/expertise, and the names of three references to the Chair of the Search Committee, Robin G. Lorenz, M.D., Ph.D., Assistant Dean for Physician-Scientist Education, Professor, Department of Pathology, by e-mail to: PATH-LMDirector@mail.ad.uab.edu. Evaluation of applications will occur as they are received and will continue until the position is filled. A pre-employment background investigation is performed on candidates selected for employment. Physicians and other clinical faculty candidates who will be employed by the University of Alabama Health Services Foundation (UAHSF) or other UAB Medicine entities, must successfully complete a pre-employment drug and nicotine screen to be hired. UAB is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer committed to fostering a diverse, equitable and family-friendly environment in which all faculty and staff can excel and achieve work/life balance irrespective of ethnicity, gender, faith, gender identity and expression as well as sexual orientation. UAB also encourages applications from individuals with disabilities and veterans.
