

UAB Track/Concentration/Option Approval Process

Any group of courses within a degree program identified as a track, concentration, option, focus, specialization, etc., requires approval by the University of Alabama Board Of Trustees and the Alabama Commission on Higher Education.

School-level

Approved by appropriate school-level committee and dean.

Undergraduate Programs

Institution-level

Reviewed by Vice Provost for Student and Faculty Success.
Reviewed by Faculty Senate Curriculum Committee.
Reviewed and approved by Provost.
Reviewed and approved by President

External

Reviewed and approved by Board of Trustees.
Reviewed and approved by ACHE.

Graduate Programs

Institution-level

Reviewed by the Graduate Council Advisory Committee.
Reviewed and approved by Provost.
Reviewed and approved by President.

External

Reviewed and approved by Board of Trustees.
Reviewed and approved by ACHE.

Dates of Board of Trustees meetings and UAB internal deadlines for submission of items available at:
<http://www.uab.edu/boardliaison/>