

UAB Plans for New Instructional Program Development 2011-2014

Projected Year to be Submitted (2011-2014)	CIP Code	Degree	Title	Description
2011-12	26.1201	M.S.	Biotechnology	Prepares graduates for careers in various fields involving biotechnology and related sciences.
2011-12	26.0102	B.S.	Biomedical Sciences	Prepares undergraduates for careers in various biomedical science fields including biotechnology.
2011-12	52.0201	M.S.	Management	Prepares graduates to plan, organize, and direct the functions of an organization including human resource management, entrepreneurship, and information systems; designed for students who may not have professional work experience.
2011-12	51.0905	M.S.	Nuclear Medicine Technology	Prepares graduates who complete diagnostic evaluations and therapeutic applications using nuclear medicine technology. Will replace existing B.S. program.
2011-12	51.2201	B.S.	Public Health	Prepares graduates to address issues related to helath of populations and health disparities within and across populations.
2012-13	31.0599	M.S.	Lifestyle Intervention	Provides advanced training for health professionals in nutrition, exercise science, physical diagnosis skills, and health behavior/education and prepares them to participate in team-based community interventions related to chronic disease management.
2012-13	51.0913	B.S.	Athletic Training	Prepares graduates who are eligible for certification in working to prevent and treat sports injuries and associated conditions.
2012-13	52.1201	M.S.	Mangement of Information Systems	Provides students who may not have professional work experience with specialized study in management information systems.