On the road in the Deep South

UAB students traveled to four states, talking to experts about specific public health issues facing their communities.

- CDC
- Ga. Poison Control
- The Carter Center

Intersection of animal and human health

Human subjects research

Poarch Creek Tribal Health Dept.

Fort Massachusetts, location of first quarantine station in 1880

Recovery after Hurricane Katrina

Radiological exposure

Former TB sanatorium

HIV & Syphilis outbreaks

On the road in the Deep South

The University of Alabama at Birmingham

Knowledge that will change your world