The University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) is accepting applications for a 12 month faculty position to serve as the Program Director for the undergraduate Biomedical Sciences Program, Department of Clinical and Diagnostic Sciences, School of Health Professions (SHP). SHP is one of our nation’s largest and most diverse schools of its type with more than twenty programs at the baccalaureate, masters, and doctoral levels. Faculty rank and tenure status are commensurate with qualifications and experience.

UAB is nationally renowned with the Carnegie classification of RU/VH: Research Universities academic medical center with multiple opportunities for collaborative scholarly activities. This position will require a Doctorate Degree and excellent interpersonal and written/oral communication skills. Administrative experience in an academic setting is also required. Preference will be given to applicants with content expertise in a Biomedical Science or a related field. Experience in teaching at the undergraduate level in a health related professions and/or professional school is highly desirable. Experience mentoring student research projects and managing student success initiatives is also highly desirable. Responsibilities include participation in teaching, research, and service, as well as an administrative assignment of Program Director. Administrative duties include responsibilities of providing leadership, ensuring quality, and supervising the administration of the undergraduate Biomedical Sciences Program.

Salary and rank are commensurate with qualifications and experience. Excellent fringe benefits are offered which include retirement benefits, health care benefits, and generous paid time off. The university’s family friendly policies and resources support faculty in achieving a balance between work and family/personal commitments.

UAB is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer committed to fostering a diverse, equitable and family-friendly environment in which all faculty and staff can excel and achieve work/life balance irrespective of, race, national origin, age, genetic or family medical history, gender, faith, gender identity and expression as well as sexual orientation. UAB also encourages applications from individuals with disabilities and veterans. A pre-employment background investigation is performed on candidates selected for employment. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. The University of Alabama at Birmingham is responsive to the needs of dual career couples. Please send letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and the names of three professional references to:

Chad Epps, MD
Chair, Biomedical Sciences Faculty Search Committee
The University of Alabama at Birmingham
School of Health Professions Building, Room 451
1720 Second Avenue South, Birmingham, AL 35294-1212
cepps@uab.edu

UAB is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer