The University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) is accepting applications for a full-time, 12 month faculty position in the Physician Assistant Program (PA), Department of Clinical and Diagnostic Sciences, School of Health Professions (SHP). SHP is one of the nation’s largest and most diverse schools of its type with more than twenty programs at the baccalaureate, masters, and doctoral levels. Currently, U.S. News & World Report has ranked The UAB Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies Program No. 16.

The PA faculty candidate’s primary responsibilities will include didactic instruction, scholarly activity, community service, and student advising. The PA Program faculty consists of an energetic, cohesive group of ten individuals, and the program has an excellent relationship with the UAB Medical School and surrounding medical community. UAB is currently ranked as one of the premier medical schools and research institutions in the country, and Birmingham is an international city that enjoys a reputation as one of America’s best places for a family to live, work, and play.

The ideal candidate should have a minimum of three years of didactic teaching experience in a health related profession (PA, MD, or DO programs) and possess at least a Master’s degree in a related health sciences discipline with a doctoral level degree preferred. Salary, academic rank, and tenure status will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Fringe benefits are provided that include a retirement plan and health care benefits.

UAB is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer committed to fostering a diverse, equitable and family-friendly environment in which all faculty and staff can excel and achieve work/life balance irrespective of, race, national origin, age, genetic or family medical history, gender, faith, gender identity and expression as well as sexual orientation. UAB also encourages applications from individuals with disabilities and veterans. A pre-employment background investigation is performed on candidates selected for employment. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Please send letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and the names of three professional references to:
