Note: the application can only be accessed by Internet Explorer or Firefox. Click “Tools” on the toolbar. Then scroll down and click “Options”.
Click the “Content” tab and then uncheck “Block pop-up windows”. Click “OK”.
Type “http://www.uab.edu/students/housing” as your url. On our home screen click on the tab that applies to you.
Click “Apply (MyHousing)”
Click “Login to MyHousing”
Enter your BlazerID (your BlazerID is the part of your email address that comes before @uab.edu) and password.
Click “Enter BlazerNET”.

You have signed in to BlazerNET to access a specific page. Please click the "Enter BlazerNET" button below. If you are signing in to view a report, that report may take several minutes to load. Your screen will be blank while it loads.
Welcome Marrisa N Thornton

Imagine living within blocks of your classes and university activities, among people from various backgrounds, and in the heart of a vibrant community. By living in one of UAB's residence halls, you will be connected to exciting opportunities. You'll meet diverse people bound to become life-long friends.

All residence halls are a short stroll to campus meetings, Rec Center, theaters, and UAB athletic events. Your backyard will be filled with coffeehouses, restaurants, clubs, parks, and job opportunities just streets away. You will also be just minutes from museums, malls, professional sports, and much more.
Check to make sure the auto-generated information is correct. Then click “Next”.
This is the building preferences page. The option to request building preferences have been eliminated, click “Next”.
Complete the roommate questionnaire. You may also enter your desired roommate’s BlazerID in this section. Press “tab” after entering the BlazerID and their name will automatically populate.
You should print the housing contract (for your records) and then click "Payment".
Note: You must make a payment before you click “Continue” on the application.
Once your payment is made, exit the payment screen, and click “Continue” on the application. This will save your application.
Once you have completed your application you should update your emergency contact information. Click “Application Step 2”.
Click “Update Emergency Contact”.
After inserting your emergency contact information click “Continue”.
Your Contact Information details have been updated.
Thank you for submitting your online housing request.
An email confirming receipt of your request has been sent.
If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact the housing office.