TEAM MVP AWARDS

ALABAMA APSARA

Alabama Apsara is the state's only all-female Bollywood fusion competitive dance team. The members strive to become better dancers by exploring many different types of art forms and the goal is to introduce people to the art of expression through dance. With each performance, the team portrays a story with an attempt to connect with the audience. During the 2017-2018 year, Alabama Apsara competed in the Diwali Show and Taste of India at the Alys Stephens Center, along with the UTK Holi Show at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. The 13-member squad is excited about the future and expanding upon their activity this past year!

CRICKET CLUB

The Cricket Club competed twice this year—once in a tournament hosted by Georgia Tech in Atlanta, and a second time through their own tournament hosted here in Birmingham. The team had over 50 participants attend their hosted tournament and are excited for the opportunity to build off of this interest in the sport. They hope to grow their club roster next year through the specific cricket interest building on UAB's campus.

ICE HOCKEY CLUB

The Ice Hockey Club went 20-6-2 this year with key wins against Auburn and Mississippi State. They hosted multiple philanthropy nights during their home games and worked to give back to the community. They are extremely excited about the on-campus awareness they have built and averaged an attendance at home games of over 500 people. The officers and coaches are working to expand their recruitment for next year and are looking to bring students to UAB from all over the country to play their sport.

RANGEELA

This year, Rangeela set out to bring awareness to the isolation the elderly tend to feel from their loved ones as they grow older. As a fairly new team, they are still learning about the intricacies of production, and continue to develop their skills in storytelling, choreographing and video editing. The team also had a 1st, 2nd and 3rd place finish in their competitions this year!
