An Amendment to the USGA Code of Laws Title III, Section 301.4

WHEREAS Senators currently have the duty to vote on all amendments to the USGA Code of Laws; and,

WHEREAS some amendments may directly impact a senator’s requirements; and,

WHEREAS these instances create a conflict of interest;

THEREFORE, Let Title III, Section 301.4.7 state “Any amendment which may be declared a conflict of interest by the Executive Vice President shall not be voted upon by Senate. Such amendments must be unanimously approved by the USGA President, Executive Vice President, and the USGA Advisor.”
