An Amendment to the USGA Code of Laws Title III and Section 301.6

Whereas there have been accountability issues for Senators in the past,

Let there be the addition of a new subsection under Title III, Section 301.6; subsection 301.6.9 shall read “It is at the discretion of the Executive Vice President to create, present, and implement an approved demerit system.”

And,

Let there be the addition of a new subsection under Title III, Section 301.6; subsection 301.6.10 shall read “What constitutes a demerit must be approved by a majority vote of the Senate.”

And,

Let there be the addition of a new subsection under Title III, Section 301.6; subsection 301.6.11 shall read “Absences from formal senate meetings or informal committee meetings shall not be included as a reason for a demerit.”

And,

Let there be the addition of a new subsection under Title III, Section 301.6; subsection 301.6.12 shall read “Reaching the maximum number of demerits will warrant a meeting with the Executive Vice President and consequently may begin the impeachment process.”
