Position Vacancies

The Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Alabama at Birmingham is seeking a physician (rank open, non-tenure earning) to join the Division of Women’s Reproductive Healthcare. Applicants should be Board Certified/Board Eligible in Obstetrics and Gynecology and prepared to join a general OB/GYN group practice. This position combines the amenities of private practice, (attractive outpatient facility, appealing call schedules, paid malpractice, competitive salary) with the stimulation of teaching (resident and medical students) within an academic center with a well-established reputation for excellence. Participation in research is available by individual request. Interested applicants should contact: Todd R. Jenkins, M.D., Director, Division of Women’s Reproductive Healthcare, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology/University of Alabama at Birmingham/619 19th Street South, NHB 201/Birmingham, Alabama 35249; e-mail address: todd.jenkins@obgyn.uab.edu. Deadline for application: August 1, 2009. UAB is an equal employment employer. UAB’s “family-Friendly” policies and resources support faculty in achieving a balance between work and family/personal commitments.”
