* The Rules for Participating ***

1. This year's SOM Art Show is a one night only reception with all entries offered to reception attendees in a silent auction that will benefit Children's of Alabama Hope and Cope Psychosocial Program.
2. All entries will be exhibited and available in the silent auction. The art will go home with the highest bidder that evening. No Exceptions.
3. Competition is open only to currently enrolled School of Medicine Students and currently employed SOM Faculty and Residents.
4. Entries are accepted now through Wednesday, March 15.
5. All medium ~ photographs, painting, sculpture, drawings, etc. ~ are accepted.
6. There are no size, theme or presentation requirements, but the work will be displayed as submitted. Framing of photographs is strongly recommended.
7. Participants may submit more than one entry, but organizers reserve the right to edit number of pieces to fit exhibition space.
8. Previously shown and submitted works are accepted.
9. Cash prizes will be awarded to the First, Second and Third Place winners, as determined by reception attendees and a panel of judges, in each of the two show categories: Students | Residents | Fellows and Faculty. Judging will happen and awards will be announced at the reception in The Edge of Chaos, fourth floor of Lister Hill Library (LHL), on Tuesday, April 18, 2017.
10. Deliver entries to UAB Historical Collections, third floor, Lister Hill Library, 1700 University Boulevard, Monday through Friday, 9am – 5pm, p 934-4475.
11. Include the artist's name, contact information, school year or department affiliation, title of piece and medium with each entry.
12. Submission of art automatically grants permission to UAB to reproduce images of the art in publications and publicity material.
13. AOA and the Alabama Museum of the Health Sciences reserve the right to reject any piece.
