November 30, 2017 | 6pm

Roberta A. “Robbie” Kaplan is the founding partner of Kaplan & Co., and adjunct professor at Columbia University Law School. Kaplan successfully argued before the Supreme Court in United States v. Windsor, a landmark decision that required the federal government to recognize same-sex marriages, paving the way for marriage equality.

Joshua Matz is a lawyer & writer who maintains an active civil rights practice, having previously served as law clerk to U.S. Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy. His article “The Constitutional Inevitability of Same-Sex Marriage,” was published in Maryland Law Review.
