Paid undergraduate internship at the UAB Institute for Human Rights

Are you passionate about human rights? Do you have great graphic design and communication skills and do you love working in a team? This internship is for you! The UAB Institute for Human Rights (http://www.uab.edu/cas/humanrights/) is looking for an intern to serve as the Institute’s graphic designer.

What You Will Learn:
1. You will have a major impact on the branding, public relations, and outreach of the Institute.
2. You will contribute to the IHR team and add your voice in our work.
3. You will have plenty of additional opportunities in related projects.
4. You will become an expert on human rights worldwide.
5. You will be able to bring in your personal passion on specific human rights issues.

What We Require:
1. Interest and passion for human rights.
2. UAB undergraduate student, major and year of study open.
3. Background in graphic design – we need someone to create our flyers, banners, portfolio for social media, etc.
4. Strong writing and communication skills.
5. Organized, with an ability to prioritize time-sensitive assignments.
6. Creative and flexible.
7. Interest in nonprofit management and community development.

What we offer:
1. The position begins in early September (or as negotiated).
2. You will be expected to dedicate about 5 hours per week.
3. We pay $10/hour.
4. Work in a diverse and enthusiastic team.
5. Primary access to speakers, visitors, and human rights experts.

Details:
Please send your resume, unofficial transcript, a short paragraph why you are interested in this position, and a sample flyer (pick one of the events on our website http://www.uab.edu/cas/humanrights/events and create a sample) to Dr. Tina Kempin Reuter, Director of the Institute for Human Rights, at tkreuter@uab.edu by August 31, 2019.