COMING ATTRACTIONS

THE EMPEROR'S NEW CLOTHES
by Birmingham Children's Theatre
January 11 through February 13

The setting is a land far, far away. The Emperor is concerned with having the grandest clothes in the empire for the Grand Ball. The fun begins when the "Doctor of Tailorology" develops a suit of clothes guaranteed to separate the fools from the wise men. For these clothes are visible to all but the "unforgiveably stupid!" A classic take of Hans Christian Andersen, directed by David Wilborn.

ALADDIN by Birmingham Children's Theatre
April 6 through May 8

This play is magnificent with the beauty and magic and mystery of the Arabian nights. Aladdin enters the mystical cave to find the magic lamp of the Genie. Comedy, suspense, and the excitement of helping Aladdin defeat the Evil Magician make this an ideal theatrical experience. Written and directed by Dr. Aubrey Berg.

THE THREE CUCKOLDS by UAB Theatre
February 14-18 at 8:00 pm and February 19 at 2:00 pm at the Bell Theatre

The Three Cuckolds is a play created by Leon Katz from an anonymous scenario of the commedia dell'arte. Three dense husbands, three pretty wives, a very clever servant, acrobatics, old jokes, bright colors, and the original slapstick.

You'll live happily ever after.
