Coming This Summer, 2008:
The Ransom of Red Chief
A pair of bumbling conmen kidnap a precocious little boy and quickly find that holding him prisoner is far more work than they’d expected! The famous rollicking short story by O. Henry has been adapted for young audiences by UAB’s resident playwright, Lee Shackleford.

Public Performances: June 5-7 and 10-14, Odess Theatre
Tours Available: June 16-20 and 23-27.
Call 934-3237 for more information!
OVATION UAB
(Sponsored by Theatre Advisory Committee)

Opening nights at Theatre UAB are OVATION UAB nights. OVATION UAB sponsors a box dinner and conversation with the director and designers before the show, as well as a post-performance party with the cast and crew.

Join us! You will be able to invite your friends to enjoy a tasty meal before the plays, be already parked and ready to settle back for an evening of live theatre.

OVATION UAB has the mission to support and sponsor the students working backstage and performing in Theatre UAB. Membership dues, ranging from $10 - $2500, are used to offset the costs required of each student to participate in the productions.

To become a member of OVATION UAB, please pick up a brochure in the lobby outside the theatre and complete the form. Follow mailing directions listed in the brochure.

Help us support our rising stars!

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO OUR CURRENT OVATION UAB MEMBERS

This production is entered in the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (KCACTF). The aims of the national theater education program are to identify and promote quality in college-level theater productions. To this end, each production entered is judged by a regional KCACTF representative, and selected students and faculty are invited to participate in KCACTF programs including scholarships, internships, grants and awards for actors, directors, designers, playwrights, educators, stage managers and critics at both the state and national levels.

Productions entered in the Participating level are eligible for inclusion in the KCACTF regional festival and also be invited for inclusion in the KCACTF national festival at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, DC in the spring of 2008.

Last year more than 1,500 productions were entered in the KCACTF involving more than 200,000 students nationwide. By entering this production, our theater department is sharing in the KCACTF goals to recognize, record, and celebrate the exemplary work produced in college and university theater across the nation.

SETTING
The Forest of Arden

The play will be performed with one intermission.

Director’s Notes...

“What is the comic view of life? All comedy celebrates humankind’s capacity to endure; it dramatizes the fact that no matter how many times we may get knocked down or fall short we somehow manage to pull ourselves up and keep on going...The essential fact of the comic world is disturbance. It is a world of lost fortunes, separated lovers, threatened identities, tyrannical imposters, blind and willful authority figures, exile, and melancholy....Life has its shortcomings, but this situation is not viewed as irremediable, for everything about comedy confirms the possibility for change. The inauthentic is seen for what it is, and a new and more honest reality seems possible. Because good sense triumphs, the discord is assimilated, and social order is restored.” (Robert Corrigan from THE COMIC SPIRIT)

The characters in AYLI come to the Forest of Arden to re-member and in that process find healing and their true selves with a wedding symbolizing rebirth and renewal.
