Did You Know?
The final Common Rule, published on June 19, 2018, will go into effect in two weeks (Monday, January 21, 2019). Seventeen major funding agencies have adopted the revisions to federal regulations governing human subjects research. The new rule includes changes to processes for informed consent, IRB reviews (exemption and continuing), and Expedited Status Updates as well as to definitions for research, human subject, clinical trial, identifiable private information, and identifiable biospecimen. UAB’s Office of the IRB (OIRB) will host several presentations this week exploring the rule’s revised exempt categories for social, behavioral, and education research; changes to the informed consent process for biomedical research; and new exempt categories for biomedical research. In November 2018, OIRB presented an overview of the impending Common Rule changes, now available via slide deck and video. More

CCTS Announces CHIA 2018 Grantees
Congratulations to our 6th Annual Community Health Innovation Award (CHIA) grantees, who were honored at an awards ceremony on Monday, December 17, 2018, at the UAB National Alumni House. Thanks to the generosity of our CHIA 2018 donors, a total of $56,000 was distributed to launch or extend four projects addressing critical health concerns in the Birmingham community. CCTS also thanks the staff, faculty, and volunteers, including mentors and judges, who help make the CHIA program a success every year. More

Mark Your Calendar for Upcoming Translational Research Learning Opportunities
Graduate students, postdocs, trainees, and faculty from early career to senior level are encouraged to take advantage of several outstanding training opportunities on the horizon. Whether you wish to develop new translational a/o clinical research skills, meet new mentors or collaborators, or brainstorm solutions to some of the biggest challenges facing our health system, there is an upcoming event for you! Funding Opportunities

NIH Releases 40+ Fast-Track HEAL FOAs--Apply Soon!
The NIH Helping to End Addiction Long-term (HEAL) funding opportunities posted over the past few weeks offer translational researchers from across the T-spectrum (T0-T4) a new source of support for discovery research, preclinical development, clinical trials, implementation/dissemination studies, and technology development or commercialization. The catch? Most have short application windows (i.e., late January-early February deadlines) and specialized submission criteria (e.g., all applicants to RFA-NS-19-021, which will fund pain-related comparative effectiveness clinical trials, must include a letter of support from CCTS). Check out the list and share broadly with your colleagues. More

Enhance Your Research with a CCTS and/or Radiology Imaging Development Voucher
Do you have specimens that need processing, data that need analyzing, or subjects who require dietary, nursing, or regulatory support? Would your project benefit from molecular, functional or anatomic images? The CCTS and UAB Dept. of Radiology voucher programs offer extra support that may help take your research to the next level. Investigators with a full-time faculty appointment at any CCTS Partner institution are encouraged to apply. Each program offers up to $5,000 in direct costs. More

UAB Multiple Sclerosis Center (MSC) Now Accepting LOIs for Pilot Studies
The MSC awards funding to exceptional UAB scientists for pilot projects in support of novel research in the field of MS. These awards, made possible through generous philanthropic giving, advance promising MS research and undergird high-risk/high-reward projects with the potential to discover new treatments with disease-modifying impact. Letters of intent are due by Friday, January 11, 2019. More

Apply for the Deep South RCMAR Health Disparities Research Pilot Grant 2019
The Deep South Resource Center for Minority Aging Research (RCMAR) invites Letters of Intent (LOI) to apply for one-year pilot grants focusing on minority aging and health disparities in the African American population. LOIs are due by Monday, January 14, 2019. More

Immuno-Oncology Translation Network (IOTN): Cancer Immunoprevention Research Projects (U01 Clinical Trial Not Allowed)
NIH has released two new FOAs associated with the Beau Biden Cancer Moonshot Initiative that is intended to accelerate cancer research. Specifically, these FOAs seek to support the creation of a translational science network devoted exclusively to immunotherapy approaches to treat and prevent adult cancers. Submit applications to RFA-CA-19-014 and RFA-CA-19-015 by 5pm, Thursday, February 8, 2019. More
$100K CD2H Idea Competition

The CTSA Program’s National Center for Data to Health (CD2H) is excited to announce the launch of the CD2H Idea Competition. This is an opportunity to turn your scientific question into a DREAM Challenge to be tackled by teams around the world. If your idea is selected, you will receive a $100,000 subcontract to run the DREAM Challenge in collaboration with the CD2H. The deadline to submit your initial proposal is Friday, February 15, 2019.
