

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT INSTITUTE (CEI) PERSPECTIVES

Community Violence Awareness

Community violence, especially gun violence, is a critical public health problem in communities. Community violence takes lives and leaves a lasting legacy of trauma. Homicides and other violent acts are causing substantial harm in communities across the country, especially in racially segregated and high-poverty neighborhoods.

 Thursday, December 7

 10.00 AM - 12.00 PM

ONLINE

Register now at :

go.uab.edu/ceiperspectives

Scan to register

MODERATOR & PANELISTS

Dr. Lonnie Hannon - Moderator

Associate Professor,
UAB School of Public Health

William A. Barnes

President & CEO,
Birmingham Urban League

Officer Truman Fitzgerald

Assistant Public Information Officer,
Birmingham Police Department

Sheree Kennon

Founder and Executive Director,
What About Us

Kelly Klehm

Deputy Director,
One Place Metro Alabama Family
Justice Center

LaTonya A. Tate

Birmingham City Council District 9,
Chair of the Public Safety Committee

Special Supporters:

Bonderia Lyons, Fountain Heights Neighborhood

Carmone Owens, Offender Alumni Association

Onoyemi Williams, Faith In Action Alabama

Jacobie Williams, Everybody W.E.N.S. (Working to Enhance Neighborhood Success) Nonprofit