

CCTS Bioethics Forum

Hosted by Tuskegee University

Friday, February 23, 2024 | 8:30 AM - 3:30 PM
Montgomery, Alabama

AGENDA

8:30 AM Continental Breakfast and Check-In Begins

9:30 AM Welcome, Overview, and Introduction of Keynote Speaker

Dr. Stephen Sodeke - Tuskegee University

Dr. Robert Kimberly, CCTS Director - University of Alabama at Birmingham

Dr. Timothy Turner, VP Health Research - Tuskegee University

Dr. Gregory Pavela - University of Alabama at Birmingham

10:00 AM Keynote Address

Dr. Irene Dankwa-Mullan - George Washington University

10:30 AM Questions from the Audience

Dr. Gregory Pavela - University of Alabama at Birmingham

Dr. Mariko Nakano - University of Alabama at Birmingham

11:30 AM Forum Luncheon

12:30 PM Panel Discussion with Q&A: "How AI is being used to resolve situations of improving participation in clinical trials in underserved communities" and "Ethical concerns raised by AI use in the Digital divide, Health Literacy, Analysis, Privacy and Security, Confidentiality, and other areas."

Moderator:

Dr. Gregory Pavela - University of Alabama at Birmingham

Expert Panelists:

Dr. Rachele Hendricks-Sturup - National Alliance Against Disparities in Patient Health

Dr. Lucio Miele - LSU Health Sciences Center New Orleans

Dr. Matthew Might - University of Alabama at Birmingham

Community Members:

Dr. Lucenia W. Dunn - Tuskegee Macon County Community Foundation

Ms. Bernice Frazier - Macon County Healthcare Authority

Ms. Claudia Hardy - University of Alabama at Birmingham

Councilwoman N. I. Jackson - Tuskegee, Alabama City Council

Ms. Angela Williams - University of Alabama at Birmingham

2:00 PM Break

2:15 PM Lightning Talk Scholar Presentations

Moderator:

Dr. Bruce Korf - University of Alabama at Birmingham

3:15 PM Closing Remarks

Dr. Stephen Sodeke - Tuskegee University