MA-TESOL
Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages
ONLINE

Welcome to the Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) in English as a Second or Foreign Language. Called MA-TESOL, this degree track prepares graduate students for teaching English as a Second Language (ESL) to adult language learners and English as a Foreign Language (EFL) overseas to learners of all ages. Its first purpose is to guide future ESL/EFL teachers in meeting the evolving needs of language learners within the changing societies of today’s world. Its second purpose is to provide cutting-edge instruction through a standards-based, inquiry-focused approach that prepares ESL/EFL teachers for using state-of-the-art instructional strategies. In this program, all courses are online. UAB’s MA-TESOL is identified by the national Classification of Instructional Programs with code 13.401, which is Teaching English as a Second or Foreign Language. This code classifies degree programs that focus on the principles and practice of teaching English to students who are not proficient in English or who do not speak, read or write English, and that may prepare individuals to function as teachers and administrators in such programs.

<td>Second Language Acquisition</td>
<td>This course provides an in-depth look at major theories of second language acquisition. Students explore learning environments, programs, home language, culture, and other factors that influence second language acquisition.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 615</td>
<td>Grammar and Linguistics for ESL Teachers</td>
<td>This course is a critical study of aspects of Modern English grammar important for teaching English as a Second Language (ESL) or Foreign Language (EFL). Students gain an understanding of major morphosyntactic, semantic and pragmatic phenomena important for teaching ESL/EFL, become familiar with practical and theoretical literature on teaching English grammar, participate in practical exercises of grammar correction in language learner writing, and develop classroom activities for teaching language thru grammaring.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 625</td>
<td>Phonology for Second Language Teachers</td>
<td>This learner-centered course is an introduction to phonology and its application to the teaching of English as a second or foreign language. Students learn the phonological structure of the English language, analyze examples from language learner data, diagnose pronunciation difficulties experienced by English language learners (ELLs) from different first languages, and identify instructional strategies for assisting ELLs to perceive and produce challenging English sounds.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 617</td>
<td>Teaching English in a Global Context</td>
<td>This course provides a sociolinguistic perspective on the globalization of English and on the emergence and teaching of English as an International Language. </tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 627</td>
<td>Teaching Adult Language Learners</td>
<td>This course introduces goals, principles, and practices for teaching English to adult learners, addresses the influence of varying backgrounds on adult language learning, and examines ways to evaluate adults' second language development. </tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 637</td>
<td>Methods for Teaching English as an International Language</td>
<td>This course prepares students to teach English as an International Language by using methods, strategies, and techniques appropriate for adults in ESL contexts and for all learners in EFL contexts. </tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 647</td>
<td>Instruction and Assessment: Reading and Writing</td>
<td>This course addresses linguistic, sociocultural, psychological, and educational factors that affect literacy development of English as an additional language. </tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 657</td>
<td>Instruction and Assessment: Listening and Speaking</td>
<td>This course examines how spoken communication is structured so that it is socially appropriate and linguistically accurate. Students learn principles and best practices for the contextualized teaching of second language (L2) listening and speaking skills to adolescent and adult learners. </tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 007</td>
<td>Community English Teaching: from 4 to 7 semesters (0 credit hours)</td>
<td>Students teach weekly ESL classes in the Community English Program (CEP) in UAB’s School of Education. With each successive semester, MA-TESOL students assume greater responsibility to meet higher expectations in teaching practices.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 677</td>
<td>Field Studies (2 credit hours)</td>
<td>With this clinically focused course, MA-TESOL students culminate their teaching experience in the Community English Program (CEP). They reflect on their growth as ESL teachers and focus on implementing into their teaching of CEP classes what they observe while shadowing a professional ESL teacher during their companion EESL 697 course.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 697</td>
<td>Practicum: Shadowing (1 credit hour)</td>
<td>In this course, prospective ESL/EFL teachers shadow instructors of ESL classes or of graduate classes in Academic English and/or provide specialized one-on-one instruction to international scholars and students. To enhance their own professional growth, prospective teachers share reflections and newly acquired competencies with course instructor.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EESL 698</td>
<td>Apprenticeship Teaching</td>

Integrated Practicum Experiences for the MA-TESOL (required)
MA-TESOL students must complete all four stages of integrated practicum experiences.

Stage 1 Community English Program (CEP)— from 4 to 7 semesters/terms (0 credit hours, P/F)
MA-TESOL students complete from 4 to 7 semesters/terms teaching ESL in the SOE’s Community English Program (CEP). The CEP’s ESL classes take place Thursday evenings (7:30-9:00 pm) and Friday mornings (9:30-11:00 am). During each successive semester teaching CEP classes, MA-TESOL students assume greater responsibility and meet higher expectations. They create a portfolio of their lesson plans, which they continually update across all terms of CEP teaching. This portfolio will be the focus of EESL 677, which takes place during their final semester of CEP teaching. Students continue teaching CEP classes and are enrolled in EESL 007 until they have completed all other courses and are taking EESL 677/697.

After having successfully completed from 4 to 7 terms of CEP teaching (as demonstrated by having passed EESL 007 during each term) and after having completed 6+ graduate courses, MA-TESOL students are eligible for EESL 677 and EESL 697.

Stage 2 EESL 677 Field Studies (2 credit hours)
In EESL 677, MA-TESOL students culminate from 4 to 7 semesters teaching CEP classes as documented by having enrolled each time in EESL 007 and earned passing grades. During this EESL 677 course, students analyze their CEP teaching portfolio and reflect on their growth as teachers across several semesters. They also implement techniques and strategies into their CEP teaching that they observe during their EESL 697 shadowing, which they take concurrently with EESL 677.

Stage 3 EESL 697 Practicum (1 credit hour)
During the same semester in which they enroll in EESL 677, MA-TESOL students also enroll in EESL 697. For their EESL 697 course, MA-TESOL students “shadow” an ESL teacher who has an ESL master’s degree and 3+ years of experience with teaching ESL in an academic setting. During an entire semester, the MA-TESOL student will observe all class sessions (e.g., Reading 2 class, MW 12:00-1:30). The MA-TESOL student will observe the cooperating ESL teacher teaching his/her ESL course, support instruction when invited to do so by the cooperating teacher, and possibly teach a limited number of mini-lessons. Whenever possible, this shadowing experience will take place at the INTO UAB English Language Program. In addition to assisting the instructor being shadowed, MA-TESOL students are expected to keep daily logs, submit weekly reflections to their EESL 697 instructor, and submit an end-of-course portfolio. If possible, MA-TESOL do the “shadowing” at a level and subject to prepare for teaching a similar ESL class as their apprenticeship placement the following semester.

Stage 4 EESL 698 Teaching Apprenticeship (3 credit hours)
Students teach a semester-long ESL course, participate in debriefings on a regular basis, maintain weekly communication with their mentor/supervisor (face-to-face, email, and/or phone), and observe EESL 698 peers teaching an ESL class. The EESL 698 instructor serves as a liaison to arrange teaching and observing. At the teaching apprenticeship placement, each student is mentored and supervised by a mentor/supervisor who is assigned by the host institution.

Part-Time Employment Tutoring English (optional)
Academic Tutor for international students: INTO UAB Learning Resource Center, Sterne Library (2nd floor). About $12 p/hour, for about 10 to 15 hours p/week, based on tutor’s availability: Mon.-Fri., 9:00 am - 8:00 pm.

5) Non-native speakers of English (regardless of citizenship) must take the TOEFL. This is to ensure that MA-TESOL students can demonstrate their command of English when seeking an ESL teaching position.

6) If recommended by an instructor, students must take an academic writing course: GRD 727.
