I affirm that:

Confidentiality is one of the cornerstones of professionalism and ethics in education. I have a responsibility to preserve the confidentiality of the students, legal guardians, teachers, and school staff with whom I interact during the student teaching internship that I have undertaken as part of my program requirements at UAB. I have the responsibility to protect the confidentiality of students, educators, families, and other professionals in accordance with established professional expectations, ethics, state, and federal laws (to include expectations within the Student Teaching Handbook). Confidential information acquired shall be safeguarded within the limits of the law from disclosure, including, but not limited to, verbal disclosure and unsecured maintenance of records or recording of an activity or presentations without appropriate releases.

No information about any student, teacher, administrator, or legal guardian obtained through my participation in the student teaching internship in the schools and/or other agencies will be communicated to any other person or agency as mandated by law and/or as mentioned within the Student Teaching Handbook; or if there is a waiver previously obtained in writing, then such information may only be revealed in accordance with the terms of the waiver.

Upon completion of my student teaching internship conducted through the UAB School of Education, I will maintain student and school/agency confidentiality.
