REDEPTIVE CYCLES PHILANTHROPIC COMPETITION

With the event's focus on health and wellness, the philanthropic portion of the event will support a local non-profit bike shop, Redemptive Cycles.

The philanthropic partner, Redemptive Cycles has a mission to redeem the streets. Their non-profit shop sells new and used bikes at an affordable price, and repairs bikes on a sliding scale system. The Earn-A-Bike program allows those in need to work in the shop learning how to repair and maintain a bicycle then leave with a bike of their own. The impact a bicycle can have for someone is incredible, and the Earn-A-Bike program is just one way Redemptive Cycles is invested in, and improving our community in Birmingham. Learn more about Redemptive Cycles' mission and the great things that they have done to empower and equip the disadvantaged members of our community at www.redemptivecycles.com.

Within the philanthropic competition, each team will be ranked within their respective divisions by monetary donations given to Redemptive Cycles as well as participation in weekly

Trample Rides. The first ride will go toward your participation in the Chick-fil-A Birmingham Bike Tour. Any subsequent bike rides will earn the participant 20 points/ride in the Redemptive Cycles philanthropic category. In addition, any company or personal monetary donations made through your company's Classy fundraising page will earn you 1 point/dollar in the Redemptive Cycles philanthropic category. Overall Redemptive Cycles philanthropic points will be awarded to the top three (3) teams in each division.

The Chick-fil-A Birmingham Bike Tour will be hosted and lead by the Redemptive Cycles team on Thursday, May 14. The Bike Tour will begin and end at Innovation Depot (1500 1st Ave North, Birmingham, AL 35203). Parking is available at the Innovation Depot. The Bike Tour will begin at 6:30 PM. All riders are advised to arrive 30 - 45 minutes prior to departure. All participants are invited to stay for a party afterwards at Redemptive Cycles (1305 2nd Ave N, Unit 101 Birmingham, AL 35203).
