Resourcefulness

Resourcefulness is a skill many of us could use at this time due to the current financial situation at UAB. Resourcefulness is defined as creating useful and unique solutions in challenging situations.

So, how can managers and their teams be more resourceful?

CALL TO ACTION:

- Be creative and think outside the box.
- Brainstorm with your team to see how those resources can be better used, repurposed, or distributed.
- Keep an open mind and discover just how resourceful you and your team can be.
