Essential Information for Principal Investigators at UAB

NEW! Clinicaltrials.gov training that works with your schedule: CITP on the Go has been updated with brief, user-friendly guidance on the basic elements of managing clinicaltrials.gov. The new podcasts are less than ten minutes each and can be accessed any time, at your convenience. CITP on the Go is an easy way to participate in the CCTS Clinical Investigator Training Program, an abbreviated training curriculum for clinical investigators and trialists. The program promotes excellence in clinical practice and educates on the research capacities and expertise available to support clinical trials.
