

Department of Medicine Travel Award

For questions or additional information, please contact:

J Stoudemire

Department of Medicine
Chair's Office

Phone:
934-7520

Email:
jstoudemire@uabmc.edu

Overview

The Department of Medicine Travel Award provides trainees with supplemental costs associated with attending and presenting his/her scholarly work at prestigious national or international conferences.

The Department of Medicine is committed to ensuring all faculty, staff and trainees feel valued and respected regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, rank or title. The pursuit of excellence through a commitment to diversity and inclusion is reflected in our three pillars, which are research, education and patient care.

Details

The funds for this award will be distributed and managed by the Research Development Group.

Travel awards will be funded up to three (3) per quarter at a total of $500 per award.

Funds are limited to the following:

- One (1) per year per trainee
- Two (2) per mentor per year

Eligibility

- Trainee or Trainee's Mentor within the Department of Medicine
- Abstract has to be accepted at a national or international conference
- Priority will be give to oral presentations and first authors
- Eligible expenses include conference registration, transportation costs, lodging and meals

Application Submission

To apply, please visit,