The following STEP 1 study materials list was derived with help from student input. There are hundreds of resources available in this genre, but individual students only have time to utilize some of them. The cost totals in this list provides for student to purchase other study materials if they choose. The Doctor Student Network website indicated that more than 53% of students spent in excess of $1000. All of the list recourses below are valuable for STEP 1 preparation. In addition, they all had secondary uses in basic science course preparation according to the student group we queried.
