

CANCER RESEARCH IMMERSION STUDENT PROGRAM (CRISP)

Morehouse School of Medicine/Tuskegee University/O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Alabama at Birmingham Cancer Partnership

- Training program open to undergraduate students attending Morehouse College (MC), Spelman College (SC), Tuskegee University (TU), and UAB with aspirations of pursuing a career in cancer research and cancer related health professions.
- Program Dates: Monday, June 3 – Friday, July 26, 2024 (eight weeks)
- Opportunity to work with cancer researchers and scientists
- Introduction to cancer research guided by faculty mentors
- Develop a comprehensive career plan to achieve goals
- Classes in Career Roadmaps, Scientific Writing, and Cultural Competency
- MCAT and GRE workshops
- Trainees will be paid a stipend of $1,400 per month ($2,800/summer)
- Housing at Morehouse School of Medicine may be available for Morehouse College & Spelman College trainees.*
- Housing at UAB may be available for Tuskegee students only (not available to UAB students).*

Applications due Friday, March 1, 2024

Contact Information:

Tuskegee University: Honghe Wang, PhD
Office: 334-724-4986
Email: hwang@tuskegee.edu

Morehouse School of Medicine: Shailesh Singh, PhD
(for MC and SC students)
Office: 404-756-5718
Email: shsingh@msm.ed

UAB: Ann Smith, MPH
Office: 256-454-2204
Email: mherctraining@uabmc.edu

Click on link or scan code to APPLY

Click here to learn more and apply online.

A National Cancer Institute (NCI) funded program of the Morehouse School of Medicine, Tuskegee University, and UAB O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center

*Housing based on availability and Covid restrictions.