UAB MINORITY HEALTH & HEALTH DISPARITIES RESEARCH CENTER

RESEARCH IN AGING THROUGH
MENTORSHIP & PRACTICE -
UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM
(RAMP-UP)

June 6 - July 29, 2022

ABOUT THE RESEARCH TRAINING PROGRAM

• Training program open to rising Sophomore undergraduate students
• Two-year program with intensive 8-week mentored summer research experience both summers
• Opportunity to work with physicians & scientists on aging and health disparities research
• Virtual seminars in Career Development, Research Education & MCAT Prep
• Virtual Journal Club in the MSTEM areas (Medicine, Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics)
• Present research poster at the symposium at the end of the second summer
• Students will receive a stipend of $1,920/month for the 8 weeks in summer
• Collaborate with students and faculty from partnering institutions and HBCUs throughout Alabama: Alabama A&M University, Alabama State University, Oakwood University, Stillman College, and Tuskegee University
• Applications must be completed online: Apply here.
• Letters of recommendation must be submitted by the recommender to rampup@uabmc.edu

All application materials are due by Friday, April 15, 2022

For more information visit:

Undergraduate - School of Medicine - Minority Health & Health Disparities Research Center | UAB

Program Coordinator: Emily Hudson
Program Manager: Dawn Fizer, MSHA
Program Director: Ann S. Smith, MPH

A National Institute on Aging (NIA) funded program of the UAB Minority Health and Health Disparities Research Center (UAB MHRC)