

DEPARTMENT OF PATHOLOGY, DIVISION OF ANATOMIC PATHOLOGY
UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM

The Department of Pathology at the University of Alabama at Birmingham is seeking an outstanding candidate (MD, MD/PhD) to fill the Leonard H. Robinson Endowed Chair in Pathology. We are inviting applications from qualified candidates at the Full Professor level to occupy the position. This is a full-time tenured position. The candidate must be eligible for medical licensure in the state of Alabama and be board certified in Anatomic Pathology. The candidate should be a senior recognized scientist in the discipline of investigational pathology and have an outstanding, funded research program. Candidate must have a stellar record of service to his/her institution and have evidence of mentorship to other academic faculty.

The University of Alabama at Birmingham is a leading research institution consistently ranked in the top twenty-five institutions in the country in NIH Research Funding. The Department of Pathology consistently ranks in the top fifteen departments. This individual will be asked to lead an extensive NIH-funded tissue/tumor resource covering cancer and multiple other diseases. A transitional period of collaborating with an established and successful senior faculty member in the field of biorepository science research could be arranged and aid in the transfer of the candidate's research to UAB.

Individuals that wish to be considered for the Endowed Chair should submit a comprehensive curriculum vitae, statement of research funding, and the names of at least six individuals that will serve as references to the attention of Gene P. Siegal, M.D., Ph. D., Robert W. Mowry Endowed Professor of Pathology, Interim Chair, Department of Pathology, University of Alabama at Birmingham, path-aprecruits@uabmc.edu. All applications will be accepted until position is filled.

A pre-employment background investigation is performed on candidates selected for employment. In addition, physicians and other clinical faculty candidates who will be employed by the University of Alabama Health Services Foundation (UAHSF) or other UAB Medicine entities must successfully complete a pre-employment drug and nicotine screen to be hired.
