Study Away @

Project Hearts:
Dominican Republic

Health, Education and Social Welfare in a Global Community

NUR 442/642

Open to all students with at least Sophomore standing and 2.7 GPA.
Enrollment requires permission of instructor and UAB Study Abroad Program Office

Students will have many opportunities to engage in the local community by working with health care in the Dominican Republic with local healthcare providers in various settings. They will present projects they have planned to women and children in communities or to health professionals. Students will also engage the community by meeting public officials to learn about the government and health care system of the Dominican Republic. A collaboration of UAB SON with Project Hearts will permit students to have contact with residents of the Dominican Republic in many settings: schools, churches, and other community groups. Students will stay in hotels and eat at the hotel and local restaurants.

3 semester hours; Dr. Ivey and Ms. Hamilton, Professors of Nursing
Prerequisites: Permission of Instructor
