Mission

To provide high quality accessible services to the University community that helps foster safety and security on campus by being responsive to the changing needs of our customers

UAB Police and Public Safety Dept:
Committed to Serve

Vision– This Department will be the vanguard of safety for our University community by: doing anything for anybody at any time

Professionally, effectively, and caringly... this is how the men and women of the UAB Police Department seek to serve the UAB community. Our philosophy of community policing integrates crime prevention, problem resolution, and community involvement in an unprecedented manner, allowing us to provide the support and service deserved by UAB guests, students, and employees. Accredited by the Commission for the Accreditation of Law Enforcement Agencies, the UAB Police Department has earned a reputation for excellence.

Our police department mission statement is to be responsive to the changing needs of our customers. We take great pride in exemplifying the high ideas of professionalism and dedication to the careers we have chosen in law enforcement.

At the UAB Police Department, we are committed to providing the public with quality service: every person, every time!
