This is your January 2019 newsletter from Grants.gov

Next Grants.gov Maintenance: February 16-19, 2019

Grants.gov Open During Shutdown
During the lapse in federal appropriations, the Grants.gov system remains in an Operational status. Additionally, the Grants.gov Support Center remains available to provide assistance to applicants.

MOBILE APP

100,000 Installs And Counting

Use the mobile app (available for iOS and Android) to track and subscribe to the latest federal grant opportunities.

GRANTS TRAINING

Conferences, Workshops and Webinars

Bookmark the Events and Training page on the Grants.gov Community Blog.

GRANTS

New Funding Opportunities Posted by HHS

Here are the most recent grant announcements from the Department of Health and Human Services.

NOTICES

Upcoming Changes With User Impacts

Find out what user impacts are coming in the months ahead.
TWITTER TIPS

Determining your (or your organization's) eligibility to apply for and receive a federal grant is a critical step in the application process. Learn about the categories of eligibility: https://buff.ly/2O54zuX  #LearnGrants

Follow @grantsdotgov on Twitter for more tips and insight into the federal grant application process.