Tuesday Tip

Keep Calm and Journal On

While Canvas does not have a dedicated journaling tool, today we'll look at how to fake it until Canvas makes it. By creating individual discussion "groups," students will have a space to submit reflections that can only be viewed by the instructor.

Clinical Reflection Journal 1

This is a clinical journal you will be expected to post to weekly. Please answer this prompt:

Please describe the most difficult challenge you faced in your clinical assignment this week.

Please review the course readings from this week and draw parallels between your experience and the nursing research.
