

Master of Science in Occupational Therapy: Course Sequence

The following provides an overview of the seven semesters of study for the Entry-Level Professional Masters of Science Program in Occupational Therapy (MSOT). MSOT courses are on-campus, sequential, interlinked, and offered only once a year. In addition students also have off-campus fieldwork experience.

*courses are subject to change.

I. Fall Semester

	Credit Hours
OT 595 Occupations and Health: Groups and Communities I	1
OT 606 Occupation Based Practice Models	3
OT 607 Analysis of Occupational Performance	3
OT 620 Foundations of Occupation: A & P	4
OT 667 Research Methods	3
OT 600 The Nature of Occupation	2

II. Spring Semester

OT 596 Occupations and Health: Groups and Communities II	1
OT 605 Therapeutic Skills	3
OT 609 Barriers to Occupational Performance	3
OT 622 Introduction to Occupations of Infants, Children and Adolescents	3
OT 623 Foundations of Occupation: Neuroscience	3
OT 630 Fieldwork Preparatory Course	1
OT 631 Foundations of Occupation: Biomechanics	3

III. Summer Semester

OT 597 Occupations and Health: Groups and Communities III	1
OT 610 Mental Health Diagnosis across the Lifespan	3
OT 624 Occupations of Infants, Children, and Adolescents	4
OT 632 Fieldwork Experience I	1
OT 662 Enhancing Occupational Performance: Modalities	4
OT 673 Engagement in Occupations through Technology I	3
OT 698 Non-Thesis Research	2

IV. Fall Semester

OT 598 Occupations and Health: Groups and Communities IV	1
OT 625 Occupations of Adults and Older Adults I	4
OT 633 Fieldwork Experience II	1
OT 661 Wellbeing and Health through Occupation	3
OT 668 Mental Health Practice in Adulthood	4
OT 670 Occupation and Low Vision	3
OT 698 Non-Thesis Research	2

OT660 Seminar: Interdisciplinary Services/Developmental Disabilities
(elective, by application) (2)

V. Spring Semester

OT 599 Occupations and Health: Groups and Communities V	2
OT 634 Seminar in Professional Readiness	2
OT 653 Using the Literature for Evidence-Based Practice	3
OT 665 Occupations of Adults and Older Adults II	4
OT 674 Engagement in Occupations through Technology II	3
OT 698 Non-Thesis Research	2
HP 650 Management and Leadership Skills for Clinical Professionals	2
OT660 Seminar: Interdisciplinary Services/Developmental Disabilities (elective, by application)	(2)

VI. Summer Semester

OT 685 Advanced Fieldwork Experience I	10
--	----

VII. Fall Semester

OT 686 Advanced Fieldwork Experience II	10
---	----

Total credit Hours: 107