Resources for Participants in Simulation Activity

UAB employees experiencing a psychological injury should be referred to the UAB Employee Assistance and Counseling Center. (www.uab.edu/humanresources/home/resourcecenter)

The UAB Employee Assistance and Counseling Center, formerly the UAB Resource Center, is an employee benefit designed to provide employees and their immediate household members with resources for resolving work-related and personal problems. The UAB Employee Assistance and Counseling Center provides employee assistance, confidential counseling, community referral, supervisor consultation, crisis management and a variety of educational programs to support successful work life integration. Call 934-2281 to access services.

UAB Medicine faculty members may also obtain services at the UAB Medicine Professional Development Office. Call 731-9799 to arrange an appointment.
