ABOUT STUDENT MEDIA

UAB Student Media is the home of the University of Alabama at Birmingham's student-run media outlets. They include Kaleidoscope, an award-winning weekly newspaper; BlazeRadio, our 24-hour online radio station; Aura, a much-heralded literary arts magazine; and UABTV, original, web-based video programming. UAB students operate all media. The articles, posts, newscasts and opinions are solely those of its student writers, producers, editors, deejays, etc. They connect to what students want to read, hear, see... and buy.

- All event services and sponsorships must be prepaid and are subject to a $25 administrative fee.
- Festival and political advertising must be prepaid.
- Student Media reserves the right to require prepayment at any time on any account and/or refuse to run further advertising until payment is made in full.
- Advertising or contracts cancelled by the deadline date will be refunded or not billed. Any client failing to cancel before deadline will be fully responsible for the contents of the contract.

RESTRICTIONS

All of University of Alabama at Birmingham's Student Media organizations reserve the right to reject any advertisement or underwriting message. Advertisements or underwriting messages that discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, creed, color, disability, sexual orientation or gender expression will not be accepted.

Advertisements that Student Media or its member organizations deem false or misleading will be rejected. Advertisements and underwriting messages for products, services or promotions that are illegal in the state of Alabama will be rejected.

Alcohol and tobacco advertising is not accepted. Students, faculty or staff placing advertisements or underwriting messages on behalf of businesses, whether those are personal businesses or whether they are employees of one, will not be eligible for any student/staff/organization discounts and will be charged the full local or national rates as applicable.

Student Media is not liable for any error in any advertisement or underwriting message submitted camera- or broadcast-ready.
